

Healthy and happy

Unit 1 · Reading health messages critically

Valentin
way2go! 8, Unit 1

School work check

- 01 Which page or task is your class doing now?
- 02 What have you completed in the English app?
- 03 Is there one school task that needs attention today?

A useful starting point

- 01 What makes online health advice sound convincing?
- 02 What makes a claim difficult to check?
- 03 Improve this: “One routine works for everyone.”

Words for the reading

balanced	including different things in useful amounts
nourish	give a person the food they need
mindful	paying careful attention
minimise	make something as small as possible
professional	a trained person in a particular job

Use two words in your own sentences.

Read the message

What does the picture actually show?

What health message might someone attach?

What could the picture never prove?

Book p. 8 · Health memes

- 01 Open way2go! 8, page 8. Choose one meme.
- 02 State its message in one neutral sentence.
- 03 Give one reason to trust or question it.

Book p. 9 · First reading

- 01 Read “Getting A-level health” on page 9.
- 02 Find the four main areas of advice.
- 03 Summarise each area in two or three words.

Book p. 9 · Read closely

- 1 Which suggestion fits a school day?
- 2 Find one reason given for advice.
- 3 Where does the article suggest expert help?
- 4 What would you check before sharing a claim?
- 5 Which idea might need adapting for others?

Make the language precise

- 01 “This helps everyone.” Make it more careful.
- 02 “You should to check the source.” Correct it.
- 03 “The article advises to exercise.” Improve it.

Five-minute break

Pause and look away from the screen

5 minutes

Book p. 10 · School challenges

- 01 Open page 10, exercise 7. Choose two challenges.
- 02 Rank them for a fictional final-year student.
- 03 Explain how the ranking might change for another.

How to test advice

Claim A short study break improves every result.

Question Who was studied, and how was progress measured?

Careful view It may help some students concentrate.

Next step Compare several reliable sources.

Which words make the view appropriately cautious?

Your blog comment

Write 110–140 words about one p. 8 health message.

Explain the message without copying the meme.

Give a reason for and a reason to question it.

Finish with a careful conclusion or question.

Independent writing · audience: other students

Revise one paragraph

- 01 Underline a claim that sounds too certain.
- 02 Check one modal verb and one verb pattern.
- 03 Improve one sentence while keeping your meaning.

Exit check

- 1 A post says: “One study routine suits everyone.”
- 2 Rewrite its claim more carefully.
- 3 Ask one question before sharing it.

Between lessons

- 01 If the app email is unfinished, complete it.
- 02 If submitted, revise one paragraph from today.
- 03 Bring the next class page or task next time.

Reserve · vocabulary map

OPTIONAL RESERVE

Choose four useful expressions from book p. 9.

Group them by food, movement, mind or expert help.

Write two original sentences with correct patterns.

Reserve · challenge debate

OPTIONAL RESERVE

- 01 Student A values exam preparation most.
- 02 Student B values time for rest most.
- 03 Reach a balanced two-sentence conclusion.

Reserve · rewrite a post

OPTIONAL RESERVE

Post: “Everyone needs the same health routine.”

Explain why this wording is too strong.

Write a 60–80-word cautious reply.